

★PUKER NATION!★

★ ★ INSIDE ★ ★ Issue #1!!
★ ★ FREE!
★ ★ Sept. 2010

★ ★ ROCKY HORROR ★ ★
★ ★ PICTURE SHOW!
★ ★ STENCILS! LUNACHICKS!
★ ★ REVIEWS! OTHER JUNK!

MY HEART
SCREAMS
FOR DAN CREAN!

LETTER FROM THE C.E.O. FOUNDER, WRITER, JANITOR, AND COPY MAKER..

Well BONJOUR! and welcome to the 1st issue of IPUKER NATION!

I started this because I am tired of dumb
'alternative' magazines being hipster and lame!
Also, I get pretty bored! Yay! I'll try to put out a new issue for the first weekend of every month, but no promises! Okay, bye!

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

- 1 - Drawing
- 2 - This!
- 3 - Lunachicks profile
- 4 - 50 other ways to play
Century club
- 5 - Movie of the month -
Rocky Horror
- 7 - D.I.Y Stencil Time!
- 9 - Reviews - Books
- 10 - Reviews - Music

WHERE TO GET:

Ottawa:

- Vertigo Records
- Mayflower Pub
- Ragtime Vintage
Clothing
- Library (Yay! Free
books!)

If they aren't there, whatevs! You can just wait till the next issue!
(We are working on an Etsy profile so you can buy this junk!)

PLEASE SEND ALL DEATH THREATS AND HATE MAIL
To: PUKER.NATION@live.com ☺ #2

COVER PHOTO FROM THE BOOK "ELLES EN RÉGENT TOUTES" (Yay! I cut it out!)

THE LUNACHICKS RULE!

It only took me one song to get hooked on the Lunachicks. Amusingly enough, it was a Blondie cover.

As soon as that frantic, heart-racing, blood-churning version of 'Heart of Glass' came through my speakers, I was hooked. So, of course, I got up to dance around my living room. It was THAT good! Some time later, I got 2 of their cds for £5 each on secondspin.com. When they finally came in the mail 3 weeks later, I rushed to put them on. I was floored!

These women were amazing! They could play like nobody's business! They dressed crazy! They, to put it quite simply, pood glamour.

The Lunachicks started in 1987, when the girls attended the same performing arts high school in N.Y.C. The original line-up was then on vocals, Gina & Sindi on guitars, Squid on bass and Theo's boyfriend on drums. 3 drummers later followed: Becky Wreck, Chip English, & Helen Destroy.

They got their 1st big break when they were discovered by members of Sonic Youth, who invited the group to open for them on their European tour. A record deal followed and the ladies got to work on their debut, 'Babysitters on Acid'. The members of the group later admitted they hated this album, but I think it's great until about track 7, hah! (If anyone out there can sit through the epic 'Theme Song', I applaud you!)

However, their next album, 1992's 'Binge and Purge', is my least favourite. I really did not like this album! Only 2 good songs: the title track and 'Apathetic'. They followed this hot mess with the vastly improved 'Jerk of all Trades' (1993) and 'Pretty Ugly' (1997, and produced by Fat Mike!). The next year they followed with their first (and only!) live record, 'Drop Dead Live', which has a brilliant look over here!

(cont'd.)
p. 8

50 OTHER WAYS TO PLAY CENTURY CLUB!!!

SURE, YOU LOVE A GOOD OLD FASHIONED GAME OF CENTURY CLUB, BUT YOU DON'T WANT TO DIE! WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?!!
HERE ARE THE ALTERNATIVES! (WE COULDN'T THINK OF 100...)

1. Water
2. Go to the bathroom for 100 mins. cos' you drank so much water!
3. Cheetos!  e cheeto!
4. Hairspray!
5. Writing! Write words!
6. Sniff markers! (non-toxic!)
7. Sniff glue! (also non-toxic!)
8. Eat plastic! (v. safe)
9. Quote 'Buffy: the vampire slayer' (Xander is funny!)
10. Eat paint! Or, drink it!
11. Liquify cookies! (Like Seinfeld!)
12. Deodorant! (AY!)
13. Throat Lozenges (Wait - this will actually hurt you...)
14. Paper! (From, nature!)
15. Tefey tea infusions! (Wait, these are gross, don't do it!)
16. ICE CREAM!
17. Metal! (Eat a fork, or listen to lame-o music!)
18. Glass! (Eat glass!)
19. Hippies! (or, hipsters!)
20. Fabric! (Stuff it in your mouth!)
21. Computers! (EAT it! Smash it! Trash it!)
22. Rocks!
23. Books!
24. Grass!
25. Flowers!
26. Bugs! (CRUNCHY!)
27. Stickers! Stick em down your throat!
28. Paintbrush! (EAT one!)
29. Cards!
30. Toilet paper!
31. Trolls! (Find one!)
32. Veggie ground round!
33. Hammers!
34. Crutches!
35. Wheelchairs! (I really don't know if this is possible!)
36. Magnets!
37. Dogs! or cats! or HAMSTERS!
38. Bananas!
39. Socks!
40. Underwear!
41. Goblins! (they're real!)
42. Stakes! (the wooden kind...)
43. iPad! Blend it up!
44. Scissors! (Good luck surviving this...)
45. Vinyl records (collectable, and TASTY!)
46. Harry Potter (EAT Him! He's ABOY WIZARD!)
47. Sushi! Asian!
48. Makeup! (EAT YOUR VOICER! GOURGE YOUR MASCARA!)
49. Phone!
50. CHAMPAGNE! WOOOOOOOOOOOT!

PLZ DON'T ACTUALLY TRY THESE! YOU'LL HURT YOURSELF!

MOVIE OF THE MONTH:

The Rocky Horror Picture Show!

sweet

♥ Transvestite

July 9th, 200 11:30 p.m.

I am sitting in my dad's truck, waiting outside of the Mayfair. Now, what am I doing here? Why am I not doing something glamorous like piking at a show? Well, I already did that tonight so I've moved on to bigger and better things! Namely, (get ready!) my first in-theatre viewing of THE ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW! YAY!!

For those of you who have never seen the greatness that is R.H.P.S. (nobody!), it is the longest running and most brilliant movie of all time! It premiered in 1975 and was a major flop. So, natch, they decided to run it as a midnight movie so that all of the freaks would attend. And attend they did! From that moment on, a phenomenon was born!

Originally a musical written by Richard O'Brien (he plays Riff Raff), R.H.P.S. is one of the most popular midnight movies, next to fan favourites like El Topo, Pink Flamingos and The Room. President of the R.H.P.S. fan club, Sal Piro, has estimated that he has seen the movie about 3000 times. Wha! Devotion!

Rocky Horror is notorious for having a boatload of audience participation. People dress up! They throw Toilet Paper at the screen! They say naughty things when the characters pause in between lines! It is a great movie experience compared to going to Empire or Leaus and being confused the whole time with the latest thriller!

I take this back. The first time I watched this baby, I had absolutely no idea what was happening. I was stunned and bewildered the entire time! Why was there a billboard in the graveyard? What was with the incest between Riff Raff and Magenta?

To be quite honest, I never actually dove into the fact that during the dinner scene, they were eating Eddie's remains until I read about it on Wikipedia! (Hooray for Wikipedia!)

However the 2nd time I watched it, I fell in love! I adored everything! The songs! The costumes! The makeup! A cameo by Meatloaf! AND THOSE LIPS! It, quite frankly (ha!), was too much for my walnut-size brain to handle.

The bad thing is though, watching it in your living room does absolutely not even compare to seeing it in theatre. I saw a man in complete Frank-N-Furter garb, with 5 inch stripper heels and a faux pearl necklace! So what are you waiting for?! Grab some hot dogs, a pair of quarters and some money and get your butt down to see THE ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW! (It's playing Sept. 11th at Mayfair Theatre at 11:00! See ya there!!)

TRIVIA!! THE CASTLE IS NOW A SUPER SWANKY HOTEL! THEY MADE A SEQUEL CALLED 'SHOCK TREATMENT'! ROCKY'S BIRTH SCENE WAS FILMED ON OCT. 30th. THE BIRTH DATE OF ONE CHARLES ATLAS!

D.I.Y STENCIL TIME!

EVER GET THE FEELING THAT YOU'RE BORING? WELL! WITH D.I.Y STENCIL TIME, SAY BUH-BYE TO BORING AND 'BONJOUR!' TO FUN! STENCILS ARE GREAT WAYS TO MAKE COOL THINGS (LIKE T-SHIRTS) ON THE CHEAP! SADLY, THEY CAN ONLY BE USED ONCE. HOWEVER, THEY ARE TOTALLY WORTH IT! THEY ARE EASY TO DO IF YOU ARE ALREADY HANDY WITH AN X-ACTO KNIFE. IF YOU AREN'T, YOU'LL LEARN!

MATERIALS:

- Freezer paper (near the wax paper & foil stuff in grocery stores. $5 for a HUGE roll!)
- X-acto knife
- Cardboard
- Pencil
- Tape
- Something to print your stencil on (look cotton works very, very well!)

- Fabric paint. (I recommend Tulip's soft fabric paint [$2] or Pebeo Setacolor opaque color for fabrics [$5]).
- Access to computer and printer (Hello, library!)
- Iron + Ironing board
- Sponge roller or paintbrush
- A good soundtrack. If you are making a band shirt, it is good luck to listen to the music of the group you are making the t-shirt about. Really!

- TIME! YOU CANNOT RUSH THIS JUNK!!!

*7

HOW-TO!

1. Go find a stencil on the internet. Print it out! (stencilpunks.org and stencily.org are amazing!) Or make your own! Yay! Originality!
2. Tape your stencil to a desk or something. Tape the freezer paper over it. (Make it bigger than the stencil. Leave roughly a 2-inch border. Leave space!)
3. Trace your stencil onto the freezer paper, on the non-shiny side.
4. Flip your freezer paper to the shiny side. Get some cardboard or a cutting mat so that you don't carve up your mom's wooden table or something!
5. Cut out the parts you traced with the X-acto Knife. Throw em' out, hoarder!
6. FUN PART! Iron your stencil (shiny side down) onto your t-shirt using the HIGHEST SETTING WITH NO STEAM! For 30 seconds or until it has fused!
7. Carefully (take your time!), paint over the stencil with the roller or paintbrush. It is handy to have a little dish to put the paint in. If you accidentally get paint on a part you shouldn't have (silly!), wait until the stencil dries. Then go over that area only with water and soap!
8. Wait, you impatient, until it's dry (approx. 2 hours). If you aren't Justin Tranter and patience is not your strength, get a hairdryer! (WABOOM! SEMI PRECIOUS WEAPONS 'LOOK AT ME! REFERENCE IN A STENCIL TUTORIAL! YEATH!)
9. When you are 9000% sure it's dry, peel the stencil off slowly!
10. Now heat set your shirt! Take another piece of fabric and put it over the paint part of your shirt. Iron it (no steam, highest setting) for 5 mins. DON'T SKIP THIS!
11. Yay! You have a fun new shirt! Now show it off. hot stuff! People will not believe you when you say you made it yourself. Be prepared for when people want you to make t-shirts for them. The lazy, selfish people we are, just hand them this zine and tell them to do it themselves! Win-win-win!

cover of Iggy
Pop's 'The Passenger' their final (and best) album, 'Luxury Problem', was put out in 1999. They also joined the Warped Tour this year, as one of only
3 all-female bands
YAY!!!
They never officially broke up, but, sadly,

10 years later,
it's pretty much over. But we can still listen to the 6 albums that they left behind!
Go do it now!!

CONTD from
p. 4...

I ♥
GINA VOLPE!
(a real guitar hero)

Reviews! Everyone's a critic! ☺

BOOKS ↓ MUSIC →

AND YES, I AM AWARE THAT SOME OF THESE ARE OLD!

Treat Me like Dirt by: Liz Worth JOHNS BEECH BOOKS 2010
 Oh my goodness, I have been waiting for this for like 2 years! Ever since I saw an article about it in a 2008 copy of 'Shameless' I have been waiting myself with antic... (SAY IT!)... passion! A 300+ pgs. book about punk rock in ~~London~~ from 1978-1984! YES PLEASE! It is definitely worth checking out if you like Teenage Head, The Viletones or The Diodes. Even if you don't get a copy! ONLY COMPLAINT- this is a looming book! I averaged 10 pgs./half hour and I'm a fast reader! 7/10

Wacky Chicks by: Simon Deenan SIMON AND SCHUSTER 2009
 Oh! MY LOVE! The darling Simon Deenan wrote a pretty good book 7 years ago called 'Wacky Chicks' profiling... you guessed it! Some OUT TO LUNCH broads! This is an okay book, however, I'd recommend you read 'ECCENTRIC GLAMOUR' first before you dig your paws into this. One of the women profiled was PEARL HARBOR, so that alone is pretty great if you're into rockability! 6/10

Illustrated Guitar with Tim Martin CTPR 2005
 Have you ever wanted to teach yourself guitar? This is the book for you! It's really great! I have read many a D.I.Y guitar book and let me tell you this is one of the better ones! Hell, pick it up even if you don't want to learn how to play guitar. One page in and you'll change your tune! Only downside: it's hard to play and read on your bed at the same time! 9/10

Part Time Punks EP - Television Personalities
 This is really good! A true classic! Witty lyrics, and tinny guitar, plus they are pretending to be The Beatles on the back cover! WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT?

Downside: EP's are so little! I got this for $5 at the second ~~and~~ Ottawa Community Record Show in April (or was it May)? They're having another one on Sept. 26th at St. Anthony's Hall (523 St. Anthony St.) and admission is only $3! You should go! BEST SONGS: 'PART TIME PUNKS', 'POSING IN THE ROUND' 10/10

1978 ~~OVERGROUND~~

You Love You - Semi Precious Weapons

OH MY GOD. I don't even want to think about the time of my life until I discovered S.P.W (birth - 3 months ago). I found them while trolling through Exclaim!. What was my life like before? So dreary compared to the love they give me everyday through my speakers. Think if Adam Lambert, King Adora, The Lunachicks and The New York Dolls had a baby, it would be them. BEST SONGS THAT EVER WENT ON THE OTHER RECORD: Put a diamond in it, 'Sticky with Champagne', 'Look at me!'. Added Bonus: DAN CREAM IS GORGEOUS! (See pg. 1 for more details!) 10/10

2010 GIFFEN INTERLUPE

Nightwork - Scissor Sisters

I find that the Scissor Sisters are going down a Clash - esposed road with their records. Let's see the facts, shall we? They debut with a great record, each featuring a good cover of a classic. They continue with a weddingcore follow-up. THEN THEY COME OUT WITH FREAKIN' 'LONDON CALLING!' This record is SO good! It eclipses that shabby 2nd album! Groovy dance beats, and a man elongating his bum on the cover! However, if we continue with the 'Clash' theory, next they're going to make a crappy triple. OH NO! BEST SONGS: 'Skin tight', 'Any Which Way', 'Running Out'. 8/10

2010 POLYDOR

